"Bringing together traditional crafts & farming"

Courses, Workshops & Parties Now to end march 2012

Hands on Traditional Crafts & Pottery is the exciting and fascinating place to explore traditional crafts. Whether you are interested in pottery, wool crafts, crafts using metal, wood or leather - or even want to learn more about crafts from sculpture to dry stone walling - we have something for you or the whole family to enjoy together. We offer short and weekend workshops, adult/ children's traditional craft parties, located at the renowned & Award-Winning Beadlam Grange Farm, or even in the comfort of your own home, club, association or school. Our difference is our philosophy - all of our workshops & parties, adult or child, explore the real craft, Not just in a classroom but hands-on!
